The City of Santa Rosa, Public Works Department, invites you to attend the first of two community meetings to discuss a proposed bicycle/pedestrian east-west connector over Highway-101 in the Santa Rosa Junior College area.

The primary purpose of this first meeting is to receive public input on the community's goals, issues, and priorities as they relate to this potential project. The architectural and engineering team studying the project needs to hear from you before continuing on specific bridge locations and structural design options.

City staff and the study team, led by Steven Grover and Associates of Berkeley, CA, will make a presentation regarding the current project planning and findings to-date. They seek your input regarding where to locate a bridge, its width, accessibility issues, connections to travel routes, and other design criteria.

The second community meeting planned for April 2009 will focus on the bridge design options developed from the goals and priorities you helped determine at this first community meeting.

Should you have any questions regarding this meeting, please contact Otto Bertolero, Associate Civil Engineer, City of Santa Rosa at (707) 543-3878, or email at obertolero@srcity.org
